WEDDINGS

Please give at least 6 months notification prior to a we will require at least a year's notice for the annulment process to take place.

Commitment to Mission and Service

We believe that we,
members of the Body of Christ, the Church of Jesus Christ,
are sent to all nations to proclaim the Gospel.
We believe that we must be the salt of the earth and the light of the world, summoned with special grace
to save and renew every creature We believe that we are a pilgrim and missionary Church by nature and we further affirm that in order to establish peace and communion between sinful human beings and God, as well as to fashion men into a fraternal community, God sent his only Son, clothed in our flesh,
that he might reconcile the world to himself.
We believe that we who live by his Spirit and are anointed in his grace are also sent to bring good news to the poor, to heal the brokenhearted and to proclaim rescue to the captives and sight to the blind.
We firmly believe that the mission of the Church,
and therefore our mission, is fulfilled
by activity which makes us present to all men, so that wherever we live, we are bound to show forth by the example of our lives, the new man we have put on at Baptism, and the power of the Holy Spirit we have from confirmation.
Prompted by that Spirit, we walk the road that Christ walked,
a road of poverty, obedience, of service and self-sacrifice, so that others will perceive the real meaning of human life and glorify the Father forever.

FROM ST. KEVIN'S FRIENDSHIP GROUP

The Anointing Mass held on 23rd May was very glorifying and well attended by over 200 parishioners. Fellowship followed with the Biggest Morning Tea, in aid of the Cancer Council. Donations were overwhelming with a total collection of $972.00. The Friendship Group has presented a cheque of $1000.00 to the Cancer Council. Thanks to Fr. Des, Fr. Dong, members and guests who made it happen. Your generosity is very much appreciated.

Congratulations to Joan Hughes, Carmen Pedrola and Rita Vincent for guessing the closest amount collected. They were each presented with a Biggest Morning Tea Cup.

NATURE, GRACE AND GLORY: WOMEN'S RETREAT HOSTED BY THE DOMINICAN SISTERS

Saturday 22 June, 9am–4pm

St Philip's Parish, 60 Junction Road, Blackburn North

In our desire for holiness we can be tempted to neglect the primacy of Christ and the primacy of his grace at work in shaping our interior life. The saints have much to teach us about the primacy of grace, both through the holiness of their lives and their victory over temptation, trials and disappointments. We sometimes forget that our original state was a state of grace—original grace, which more than anything else, defines who we are and whose we are. Join us for a day of reflection and prayer and discover how original grace at work in your life leads to greater confidence, peace and stability in your daily journey with Christ.

Renaissance of Marriage [Conference – 26-27 July, 2019 in Sydney]

Archbishop Peter Comensoli has flagged four particular areas of priority: local communities, families, youth and young adults, and the poor and broken. With regards to marriage and family life, the Archbishop would be hopeful, that parishes are, in some way(s), working to strengthen marriages and family life.

Two questions:

*Do we have in St Kevin's Parish individuals or couples who have been involved in the work of marriage preparation and/or supporting married couples and families?

**Do we have any parishioners who have an interest in this important area and would appreciate some formation? If you have an answer in the affirmative to either of these questions please contact the Parish Office.

Let's reflect...

"I am the Alpha and the Omega, the first and the last, the beginning and the end." (Revelations 22:13)

This is a reminder of how we should live our lives 24 hours a day, 7 days a week – putting God first in all that we do. Not only when I am at Mass and parish activities, but when I am in the world, at work or at school. Living gratefully and generously is a lifestyle; it should influence how I make all my daily decisions.

ASCENSION OF THE LORD - YEAR C

FIRST READING – Acts 1: 1-11

A reading from the Acts of the Apostles

In my earlier work, Theophilus, I dealt with everything Jesus had done and taught from the beginning until the day he gave his instructions to the apostles he had chosen through the Holy Spirit, and was taken up to heaven. He had shown himself alive to them after his Passion by many demonstrations: for forty days he had continued to appear to them and tell them about the kingdom of God. When he had been at table with them, he had told them not to leave Jerusalem, but to wait there for what the Father had promised. 'It is' he had said 'what you have heard me speak about: John baptised with water but you, not many days from now, will be baptised with the Holy Spirit.'

Now having met together, they asked him, 'Lord, has the time come? Are you going to restore the kingdom to Israel?' He replied, 'It is not for you to know times or dates that the Father has decided by his own authority, but you will receive power when the Holy Spirit comes on you, and then you will be my witnesses not only in Jerusalem but throughout Judaea and Samaria, and indeed to the ends of the earth.'

As he said this he was lifted up while they looked on, and a cloud took him from their sight. They were still staring into the sky when suddenly two men in white were standing near them and they said, 'Why are you men from Galilee standing here looking into the sky? Jesus who has been taken up from you into heaven, this same Jesus will come back in the same way as you have seen him go there.'

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

R. God mounts his throne to shouts of joy:
a blare of trumpets for the Lord.

All peoples, clap your hands,
cry to God with shouts of joy!
For the Lord, the Most High, we must fear, great king over all the earth. R.

God goes up with shouts of joy;
the Lord goes up with trumpet blast.
Sing praise for God, sing praise,
sing praise to our king, sing praise. R.

God is king of all the earth.
Sing praise with all your skill.
God is king over the nations;
God reigns on his holy throne. R.

SECOND READING – Ephesians 1: 17-23

A reading from the letter of St. Paul to the Ephesians

May the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, give you a spirit of wisdom and perception of what is revealed, to bring you to full knowledge of him. May he enlighten the eyes of your mind so that you can see what hope his call holds for you, what rich glories he has promised the saints will inherit and how infinitely great is the power that he has exercised for us believers. This you can tell from the strength of his power at work in Christ, when he used it to raise him from the dead and to make him sit at his right hand, in heaven, far above every Sovereignty, Authority, Power, or Domination, or any other name that can be named, not only in this age, but also in the age to come. He has put all things under his feet, and made him as the ruler of everything, the head of the Church; which is his body, the fullness of him who fills the whole creation.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Alleluia, alleluia!

Go and teach all people my gospel.

I am with you always, until the end of the world.

Alleluia!

GOSPEL – Luke 24: 46-53

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Luke

Jesus said to his disciples: 'You see how it is written that the Christ would suffer and on the third day rise from the dead, and that, in his name, repentance for the forgiveness of sins would be preached to all the nations, beginning from Jerusalem. You are witnesses to this.'

'And now I am sending down to you what the Father has promised. Stay in the city then, until you are clothed with the power from on high.' Then he took them out as far as the outskirts of Bethany, and lifting up his hands he blessed them. Now as he blessed them, he withdrew from them and was carried up to heaven. They worshipped him and then went back to Jerusalem full of joy; and they were continually in the Temple praising God.
