BAPTISMS

Celebrated on the first and last Sunday of the month. Prior to the Baptism, parents are asked to attend a meeting which is held every first Thursday of the month at 7:15 pm in the Church and must bring a copy of their own baptism certificate.

WEDDINGS

Please give at least 6 months notification prior to a wedding at our Church. If an annulment is involved, we will require at least a year's notice for the annulment process to take place.

Sister Stan Mumuni is at the forefront of the Church's work in reaching out to children in need in Ghana. As the director of the Nazareth Home for God's Children, Sister Stan works endlessly to provide education, healthcare and a safe home for children rescued from life-threatening situations.

In line with traditional beliefs, in parts of Ghana, children born with a disability, or whose mother passes during childbirth, are considered to be 'spirit children' and thus at risk of being harmed or killed. The Church in Ghana is dedicated to protecting these children and educating families to ensure every child has a chance to live a full life. The Nazareth Home for God's Children is amongst the pioneers in this crucial mission. Today you have the opportunity to personally partner with the Church in Ghana and offer monthly support to this essential work. All gifts will be directed to life-saving projects for children in need. Your one-off gift today is also very much appreciated and will make a great difference to those in need.

ST. KEVIN'S PARISH FLOWER MINISTRY TEAM

We are a group of volunteers who work together on a roster basis to decorate our church. None are professionally trained to do so, but all are eager to do the best we can for Our Lord and parish.

Regarding the flower arrangements for weddings or any other special occasions that need similar requirements, we kindly request that we are given a minimum of two weeks' notice so that we can organise ourselves to meet the parishioners' requests for these special occasions. Please note that there is a minimum cost involved for these special occasions.

We welcome donations in monetary form as well as flowers. Furthermore, it is solely the responsibility of the flower ministry team to arrange the bouquets to decorate the church at all times. All donations of already made up flower arrangements will be placed in the grotto.

For all flower matters and enquiries, please contact the parish office on 9799 2108.

From the Parish Pastoral Council...

The PPC wish to bring the following matters to your attention:

Working with Children Checks: The PPC has been working on this matter in response to the Archdiocese's Child Safety Policy and the expectation that all parishes maintain a WWCC register. In coming weeks, all parish groups will be contacted by their PPC Cluster Representative to request a membership list along with WWCC details for each member. The Parish Office will maintain the list which might be audited by the Archdiocese. Please provide your assistance when your group is contacted.

Plenary Council Responses: The responses from the Plenary Council parish meeting, held earlier this year, have been reviewed by the PPC and are very enlightening. The PPC is now working to implement responses which are of most importance to our community, e.g. children and youth engagement, liturgy, families and marriage, and faith education.

Adult Education & Adult Formation: The PPC is working on a list of suggestions made by parishioners and will be planning opportunities for both areas in the coming months. Watch this space!

Denise Lyons
PPC Chairperson

THIS SUNDAY WE PRAY

In Thanksgiving:

George Iraheta
Darian George
Blanche Family

For the sick:

Maria Bastian
Sally Moore

For those who have died recently:

Kathleen Canavan
Florene Vegas
Malcolm Adaman

For those whose anniversaries occur at this time:

Federico Iraheta
Vilma & Wimal Wimaladasa
Ivan D'Silva
Shirley Machaya
Rosita Kelly

PRAYERS FOR THE SICK:

Privacy legislation requires the written permission of an authorized person before any name can be printed. Any list of the sick in the parish bulletin will undergo renewal according to a four week cycle. After four weeks a person's name on the sick list will be removed. However, once again, on the basis of written permission of an authorized person the name can be re-added to the list.

Plenary2020 Update: Australia moves into the second phase of Plenary Council preparation

Six national themes for discernment announced

Discernment on the national themes will be key to informing and shaping the agenda for the Plenary Council meetings in 2020 and 2021. These themes have been drawn from the data gathered from 17,457 submissions (taken from over 220,000 people across the country). The six national themes for discernment seek to address how God is calling us to be a Christ-centred Church that is:

- Missionary and evangelising
- Inclusive, participatory and synodal
- Prayerful and Eucharistic
- Humble, healing and merciful
- A joyful, hope-filled and servant community
- Open to conversion and renewal.

This discernment process will involve establishing working groups for each national theme for discernment. Parishes are also being asked to gather locally and, through the practice of communal discernment, listen to the national 'voice', pray together for inspiration and guidance from the Holy Spirit and discover the decisions that emerge.

Visit the national Plenary website to learn more about each theme >

We Care – Responding to the Voluntary Assisted Dying Act.

From the earliest times, Christ's followers have set themselves apart by their care of the vulnerable (Acts 4:34). On 19 June 2019, the Voluntary Assisted Dying Act (VAD) comes into effect. It legalises euthanasia and assisted suicide. Despite what the law may say, our Christian tradition affirms that every life, including those of the sick and suffering, is sacred. Euthanasia and assisted suicide are never part of end of life care.

Pope Francis has encouraged ordinary Catholics everywhere to resist euthanasia and to protect the old, the young and the vulnerable from being cast aside in a "throw-away culture." We are called to follow Christ by accompanying people with compassion, sharing hope not fear.

The Bishops of the Catholic dioceses of Melbourne, Ballarat, Sale and Sandhurst, echoing Pope Francis, have published a pastoral letter including practical guidance on ways we can be conscientious objectors to euthanasia.

Copies of the letter are available in our parish and online:

www.cam.org.au/euthanasia

Let's reflect...

"But when he comes, the Spirit of truth, he will guide you to all truth..." (John 16:13)

Jesus sent the Holy Spirit to help us know and live the truth. To prepare ourselves, we need to open our hearts to receive this gift before we can give it. Develop a daily prayer routine. Talk and listen to the Holy Spirit. This is best done in silence, when we can hear His response.

THE MOST HOLY TRINITY - YEAR C

FIRST READING – Proverbs 8: 22-31

A reading from the Book of Proverbs

The Wisdom of God cries aloud:
The Lord created me when his purpose first unfolded, before the oldest of his works.
From everlasting I was firmly set,
from the beginning, before earth came into being.
The deep was not, when I was born,
there were no springs to gush with water.
Before the mountains were settled,
before the hills, I came to birth;
before he made the earth, the countryside,
or the first grains of the world's dust.
When he fixed the heavens firm, I was there,
when he drew a ring on the surface of the deep,
when he thickened the clouds above,
when he fixed fast the springs of the deep,
when he assigned the sea its boundaries
- and the waters will not invade the shore –
when he laid down the foundations of the earth,
I was by his side, a master craftsman,
delighting him day after day,
ever at play in his presence, at play everywhere in his world,
delighting to be with the sons of men.

■ The word of the Lord

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

R. O Lord, our God, how wonderful your name in all the earth!

When I see the heavens, the work of your hands,
the moon and the stars which you arranged,
what is man that you should keep him in mind,
mortal man that you care for him? R.

Yet you have made him little less than a god;
with glory and honour you crowned him,
gave him power over the works of your hand,
put all things under his feet. R.

All of them, sheep and cattle,
yes, even the savage beasts, birds of the air, and fish that make their way through the waters. R.

SECOND READING – Romans 5: 1-5

A reading from the letter of St. Paul to the Romans

Through our Lord Jesus Christ, by faith we are judged righteous and at peace with God, since it is by faith and through Jesus that we have entered this state of grace in which we can boast about looking forward to God's glory.

But that is not all we can boast about; we can boast about our sufferings. These sufferings bring patience, as we know, and patience brings perseverance, and perseverance brings hope, and this hope is not deceptive, because the love of God has been poured into our hearts by the Holy Spirit which has been given us.

■ The word of the Lord

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Alleluia, alleluia!

Glory to the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit:
to God who is, who was, and who is to come.

Alleluia!

GOSPEL – John 16: 12-15

A reading from the holy Gospel according to John.

Jesus said to his disciples:
'I still have many things to say to you but they would be too much for you now.
But when the Spirit of truth comes he will lead you to the complete truth, since he will not be speaking as from himself but will say only what he has learnt;
and he will tell you of the things to come.
He will glorify me
since all he tells you will be taken from what is mine.
Everything the Father has is mine;
that is why I said:
All he tells you will be taken from what is mine.'
