Celebrated on the first and last Sunday of the month.
Prior to the Baptism, parents are asked to attend a meeting which is held every first Thursday of the month at 7:15 pm in the Church and must bring a copy of their own baptism certificate.

WEDDINGS

Please give at least 6 months notification prior to a wedding at our Church. If an annulment is involved, we will require at least a year's notice for the annulment process to take place.

Next weekend our parish will be holding the annual Catholic Mission Church Appeal. This year we are invited to partner with the Church in Ghana, as they provide ongoing protection and development of children who are vulnerable.

In line with traditional beliefs, in parts of Ghana, children born with a disability, or whose mother passes during childbirth, are considered to be 'spirit children', and thus at risk of being harmed or killed. The Church in Ghana is dedicated to protecting these children and educating families to ensure every child has a chance to live a full life.

Sr. Anne Morrison FCJ (Faithful Companions of Jesus), who has lived and worked in Tarija, Bolivia for 22 years with other FCJ's from different parts of the world, will speak at our Sunday morning Masses.

Envelopes for the Catholic Mission Appeal will be available. Feel free to take an envelope home and post it once they have filled it in.

From the Parish Pastoral Council...

The PPC wish to bring the following matters to your attention:

Working with Children Checks: The PPC has been working on this matter in response to the Archdiocese's Child Safety Policy and the expectation that all parishes maintain a WWCC register. In coming weeks, all parish groups will be contacted by their PPC Cluster Representative to request a membership list along with WWCC details for each member. The Parish Office will maintain the list which might be audited by the Archdiocese. Please provide your assistance when your group is contacted.

Plenary Council Responses: The responses from the Plenary Council parish meeting, held earlier this year, have been reviewed by the PPC and are very enlightening. The PPC is now working to implement responses which are of most importance to our community, e.g. children and youth engagement, liturgy, families and marriage, and faith education.

Adult Education & Adult Formation: The PPC is working on a list of suggestions made by parishioners and will be planning opportunities for both areas in the coming months. Watch this space!

ST. KEVIN'S PARISH FLOWER MINISTRY TEAM

We are a group of volunteers who work together on a roster basis to decorate our church. None are professionally trained to do so, but all are eager to do the best we can for Our Lord and parish.

This year, the team has been blessed by the addition of two new members, namely Audet Nipps and Rosanne Ferdinand. Together with the existing members, Florence D'Costa, Nicole Gnany, Joelle Felix, Patricia Cupidon, Marie-Claude Munso, Shirlene Jansz and Pam Giaquinta, we continue to strive to beautify our church for Our Lord.

As the coordinator of this ministry, I would like to take the opportunity to wholeheartedly thank the ladies and their husbands who have worked so generously and diligently, with such camaraderie and in a beautiful team spirit since the very beginning to create the flower arrangements, and all the work that comes with it, for our church. I also take this opportunity to welcome and thank the new members for joining us. They have already hit the road running, coming up with some lovely original creations.

Regarding the flower arrangements for weddings or any other special occasions that need similar requirements, we kindly request that we are given a minimum of two weeks' notice so that we can organise ourselves to meet the parishioners' requests for these special occasions. Please note that there is a minimum cost involved for these special occasions. For further information regarding the costs of flowers, please contact the parish office on 9799 2108. More detailed information on this matter is available in the wedding pack given to all prospective bridal couples to be married in our church.

Moreover, in regards to weddings and special wedding anniversaries, we have white pomander balls (x 20, i.e. one for each pew if required); white chair covers x 2; white prie-Dieu covers x 2 and chair bands in a range of colours available for rent and set up by the team only for a small fee. Please refer to photos for example.

We also welcome donations in monetary form as well as flowers. Furthermore, it is solely the responsibility of the flower ministry team to arrange the bouquets to decorate the church at all times. All donations of already made up flower arrangements will be placed in the grotto.

For all flower matters and enquiries, please contact the parish office on 9799 2108.

For all flower matters and enquiries, please contact the parish office on 9799 2108.

On behalf of the team, I would like to thank all the parishioners of St Kevin's for their continuous words of encouragement since we started this ministry as a team as well as a thank you to all those who have donated both in kind and in money to help this ministry. We ask for your prayers and blessings so that we may all be able to continue working to beautify Our Lord's house, our parish church.

Pam Giaquinta

PRAYERS FOR THE SICK:

Privacy legislation requires the written permission of an authorized person before any name can be printed. Any list of the sick in the parish bulletin will undergo renewal according to a four week cycle. After four weeks a person's name on the sick list will be removed. However, once again, on the basis of written permission of an authorized person the name can be re-added to the list.

Let's reflect...

"The Advocate, the Holy Spirit whom the Father will send in my name, will teach you everything and remind you of all that I told you." (John 14:26)

The materialism of our society lures us to concentrate more on what we want than on what God wants for us. The relativism of our world tells us that we should be tolerant of all things, that there is no absolute truth. Pray to the Holy Spirit to transform our lives and to guide our thoughts, words and actions.

The Social Group would like to especially thank Ravi from RnB Events for providing the sound, all the volunteers who worked tirelessly and a special shout out to our parish youth for all their help too!

It is occasions like these that bring us all together and foster growth and fellowship in our St Kevin's Parish community.

What a great coming together it was last Sunday to celebrate our parish feast – being the parish of Saint Kevin! It was a magnificent effort on the part of the Social Group to organise the lunch. ## PENTECOST SUNDAY - YEAR C

FIRST READING – Acts 2: 1-11

A reading from the Acts of the Apostles

When Pentecost day came round, the apostles had all met in one room, when suddenly they heard what sounded like a powerful wind from heaven, the noise of which filled the entire house in which they were sitting; and something appeared to them that seemed like tongues of fire; these separated and came to rest on the head of each of them. They were all filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak foreign languages as the Spirit gave them the gift of speech.

Now there were devout men living in Jerusalem from every nation under heaven, and at this sound they all assembled, each one bewildered to hear these men speaking his own language. They were amazed and astonished, "Surely", they said, "all these men speaking are Galileans. How does it happen that each of us hears them in his own native language? Parthians, Medes and Elamites; people from Mesopotamia, Judaea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the parts of Libya around Cyrene; as well as visitors from Rome – Jews and Proselytes alike – Cretans and Arabs; we hear them preaching in our own language about the marvels of God".

■ The word of the Lord

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

R. Lord, send out your Spirit and renew the face of the earth

Bless the Lord, my soul!
Lord God, how great you are.
How many are your works O Lord!
Your earth is full of your riches. R.

You take back your spirit, they die,
returning to the dust from which they came.
You send forth your spirit, they are created;
and you renew the face of the earth. R.

May the glory of the Lord last for ever!
May the Lord rejoice in his works!
May my thoughts be pleasing to him.
I find my joy in the Lord. R.

SECOND READING – Romans 8: 8-17

A reading from the letter of St. Paul to the Romans

People who are interested only in unspiritual things can never be pleasing to God. Your interests, however, are not in the unspiritual, but in the spiritual since the Spirit of God has made his home in you. In fact, unless you possessed the Spirit of Christ you would not belong to him. Though your body may be dead it is because of sin, but if Christ is in you then your spirit is life itself because you have been justified; and if the spirit of him who raised Jesus from the dead is living in you, then he who raised Jesus from the dead will give life to your mortal bodies through the Spirit living in you.

So then, my brothers, there is no necessity for us to obey our unspiritual selves or to live unspiritual lives. If you do live in that way, you are doomed to die; but if by the Spirit you put an end to the misdeeds of the body you will live.

Everyone moved by the Spirit is a son of God. The spirit you received is not the spirit of slaves bringing fear into your lives again; it is the spirit of sons, and it makes us cry out, 'Abba, Father!' The spirit himself and our spirit bear witness that we are children of God. And if we are children we are heirs as well: heirs of God and coheirs with Christ, sharing his sufferings so as to share his glory.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Alleluia, alleluia!

Come, Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of your faithful
And kindle in them the fire of your love.
Alleluia!

GOSPEL – John 14: 15-16, 23-26

A reading from the holy Gospel according to John.

Jesus said to his disciples:
'If you love me you will keep my commandments.
I shall ask the Father and he will give you another Advocate
to be with you for ever.
'If anyone loves me he will keep my word,
and my Father will love him,
and we shall come to him
and make our home with him.
Those who do not love me do not keep my words.
And my word is not my own;
it is the word of the one who sent me.
I have said these things to you
while still with you;
but the Advocate, the Holy Spirit,
whom the Father will send in my name,
will teach you everything
and remind you of all I have said to you.'
