TODAY - ST VINCENT DE PAUL SOCIETY 2019 WINTER APPEAL

Every day, our conference members go out in the love of Christ to provide assistance to those experiencing hardship and disadvantage in our local community. The Winter Appeal this year continues to challenge the notion that ordinary people can make an extraordinary difference in the communities they live in. This winter, your commitment to helping those experiencing disadvantage and poverty is very much needed, and appreciated. We hope that, as a Parish Community, we may remain open to the same Spirit, which calls us to respond in love and compassion to those we serve.

The St Vincent de Paul Society of Hampton Park is once again seeking the generosity of our parishioners for our Winter Appeal this weekend for those less fortunate in our community. Through our combined efforts, the St Vincent de Paul Society will be able to assist many families and individuals experiencing difficulty and hardship, particularly in these winter months. The Society thanks you for your ongoing support and express our sincere gratitude on behalf of the people we assist.

Pray for Archbishop Peter

This weekend (Saturday 29 June) Archbishop Peter received the blessed Pallium from Pope Francis. The Pallium is a small woollen vestment (like a scarf) which is worn over Mass vestments to signify his role as the Metropolitan Archbishop of Melbourne. The Pope blesses the Pallium for each new Metropolitan Archbishop each year on the Feast of Sts Peter and Paul, and the Archbishops who receive it come back to their cities where the Apostolic Nuncio (Papal Ambassador) will formally impose the Pallium as a sign of his unity with the Pope and the Universal Church. Let us pray that this moment for Archbishop Peter as our chief shepherd in Melbourne; for all of our priests, deacons and seminarians, and for many more vocations to priesthood, diaconate and consecrated life.

PRAYERS FOR THE SICK:

Privacy legislation requires the written permission of an authorized person before any name can be printed. Any list of the sick in the parish bulletin will undergo renewal according to a four week cycle. After four weeks a person's name on the sick list will be removed. However, once again, on the basis of written permission of an authorized person the name can be re-added to the list.

SAVE THE DATE: We are pleased to announce that Fr Des is celebrating his 40th anniversary of ordination to the priesthood on Sunday 18th August. In honour of this special occasion, parishioners are invited to attend a special celebration, beginning with 11am Mass and followed by lunch in the Hall. More details to come. - Parish Pastoral Council

Our Seminary – Corpus Christi College

This year we are encouraged by the addition of ten first-year students, bringing the total number of seminarians in residence to fifty. This is a very positive sign for our faith in the wider community. We are hopeful and confident that the number will grow in the years ahead.

The major raffle prize continues to be a $15,000 Travel Award managed on our behalf by Ashmore & James Travel Associates. It is with great pleasure that we have doubled the minor prizes in the form of Coles Myer gift cards to the values of $1000, $400 and $200. The purchase price for a ticket remains at $10 which represents excellent value as a maximum number of tickets remain at 6000.

As usual, the raffle will be drawn at the seminary, 180 Drummond Street Carlton, on the 30th of August, with proceedings commencing at 7.30 pm.

Office of Social Justice

The Church's Office of Social Justice (formerly the Australian Catholic Social Justice Council) hopes that the term of the next government will be characterised by respect and understanding, rather than "crude tribalism".

This reflects the comments made by the Australian Catholic Bishops Conference in their statement, "Politics in Service of Peace", released in the lead-up to the election. The name is derived from the words of Pope Francis, who urged that, "Good politics is at the service of peace."

The bishops' statement shares important principles of Catholic social teaching and encourages peaceful public debate.

The statement notes the vital role of migrants in the Catholic Church, and their part in transforming Australia into a vibrant, prosperous democracy.

"Millions of our sisters and brothers are forced to flee their homeland for fear of persecution or through displacement because of war or famine.

"Regardless of how they arrive in Australia, all asylum seekers should have their claims processed in Australia, according to international conventions, and as speedily as possible. That includes resettling all remaining refugees on Manus Island and Nauru in Australia."

Let's Reflect....

"For you were called to freedom, brothers and sisters. But do not use this freedom as an opportunity for the flesh; rather serve one another through love." (Gal 5:13)

We like to celebrate the fact that we are free to "live the good life." But Jesus calls us to a different kind of freedom. St. Paul reminds us that Jesus sets us free so that we can serve one another, share our gifts and promote God's work here on earth to glorify His name and not honor ourselves.

THE THIRTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME - YEAR C

FIRST READING – Kings 19:16, 19-21

A reading from the Book of Kings

The Lord said to Elijah: 'Go, you are to anoint Elisha son of Shaphat, of Abel Meholah, as prophet to succeed you.'

Leaving there, Elijah came to Elisha son of Shaphat as he was ploughing behind twelve yoke of oxen, he himself being with the twelfth. Elijah passed near to him and threw his cloak over him. Elisha left his oxen and ran after Elijah. 'Let me kiss my father and mother, then I will follow you' he said. Elijah answered, 'Go, go back; for have I done anything to you?' Elisha turned away, took the pair of oxen and slaughtered them. He used the plough for cooking the oxen, then gave to his men, who ate. He then rose, and followed Elijah and became his servant.

■ The word of the Lord

RESPONSORIAL PSALM – Ps 15: 1-2, 5, 7-11

R You are my inheritance, O Lord.

Preserve me, God, I take refuge in you.
I say to the Lord: 'You are my God.'
O Lord, it is you who are my portion and cup;
it is you yourself who are my prize. R.

I will bless the Lord who gives me counsel,
who even at night directs my heart.
I keep the Lord ever in my sight:
since he is at my right hand, I shall stand firm. R.

And so my heart rejoices, my soul is glad;
even my body shall rest in safety.
For you will not leave my soul among the dead,
nor let your beloved know decay. R.

You will show me the path of life,
the fullness of joy in your presence,
at your right hand happiness for ever. R.

SECOND READING – Galatians 5: 1, 13-18

A reading from the letter of St. Paul to the Galatians

When Christ freed us, he meant us to remain free.
Stand firm, therefore, and do not submit again to the yoke of slavery.

My brothers, you were called, as you know, to liberty; but be careful, or this liberty will provide an opening for self-indulgence. Serve one another, rather, in works of love, since the whole of the Law is summarised in a single command: Love your neighbour as yourself. If you go snapping at each other and tearing each other to pieces, you had better watch or you will destroy the whole community.

Let me put it like this: if you are guided by the Spirit you will be in no danger of yielding to self-indulgence, since self-indulgence is the opposite of the Spirit, the Spirit is totally against such a thing, and it is precisely because the two are so opposed that you do not always carry out your good intentions. If you are led by the Spirit, no law can touch you.

■ The word of the Lord

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Alleluia, alleluia!

Speak, O Lord, your servant is listening;
you have the words of everlasting life.

Alleluia!

GOSPEL – Luke 9: 51-62

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Luke.

As the time drew near for him to be taken up to heaven, Jesus resolutely took the road for Jerusalem and sent messengers ahead of him. These set out, and they went into a Samaritan village to make preparations for him, but the people would not receive him because he was making for Jerusalem. Seeing this, the disciples James and John said, 'Lord, do you want us to call down fire from heaven to burn them up?' But he turned and rebuked them, and they went off to another village.

As they travelled along they met a man on the road who said to him, 'I will follow you wherever you go.' Jesus answered, 'Foxes have holes and the birds of air have nests, but the Son of Man has nowhere to lay his head.'

Another to whom he said, 'Follow me,' replied, 'Let me go and bury my father first.' But he answered, 'Leave the dead to bury the dead; your duty is to go and spread the news of the kingdom of God.'

Another said, 'I will follow you, sir, but first let me go and say good-bye to my people at home.' Jesus said to him. 'Once the hand is laid on the plough, no one who looks back is fit for the kingdom of God.'
