Lift up your hearts - Sing a New Song unto the Lord

A new feature to be introduced to our church is the Yamaha Clavinova CVP 705B. The former keyboard gave very good service over the years, however some of its keys had lost their lustre. The sound of the new digital piano will be greatly anticipated since all of us can look forward to a much improved quality of sound to support our praise and worship.

Let's Reflect.....

"Jesus said to him, 'Go and do likewise.'" (Luke 10:37)

This was Jesus' command at the end of the Good Samaritan story. Did you know that the Samaritans and Jews despised each other. The moral of the story is to love our neighbor. That means loving someone you may not know or someone that looks different than you or someone that you don't like. All without expecting anything in return.

Liturgy of the Word

“Christ is present above all in the Eucharist, but Christ is also present in the Scriptures [...]. The Liturgy of the Word includes the readings from Scripture, the responsory, the gospel acclamation, the homily, the profession of faith, and the universal prayer. In the Scriptures God speaks to the people. In silence and singing, the people make God’s word their own. In the Creed they affirm their adherence to God’s word. In the universal prayer (prayer of the faithful) those who have been nourished by God’s word pray for the needs of the Church and the world [...].” (Paul Turner, Let Us Pray: A Guide to the Rubrics of Sunday Mass)

The General Instruction of the Roman Missal highlights the importance of making God’s word our own, and doing so in silence and in the responses and petitions. Our listening to the word of God, doing all we can to take it in and letting it be within, is a task, sometimes a challenge, that is before us each time God’s word is proclaimed. This is a work of interiorisation: allowing God’s word to truly speak to us personally and to pray within. The first step, though, is to listen most attentively, with the ‘ear of our heart’. Some will follow the readings as they are printed in the bulletin, and have ‘an ear’ to the reader. Yet the readings can be left to be returned to later while, as God’s word is proclaimed, the focus and engagement is centred more fully on the person who proclaims.

THE FIFTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME - YEAR C

FIRST READING – Deuteronomy 30: 10-14 A reading from the Book of Deuteronomy

Moses said to the people: 'Obey the voice of the Lord your God, keeping those commandments and laws of his that are written in the Book of this Law, and you shall return to the Lord your God with all your heart and soul.'

'For this Law that I enjoin on you today is not beyond your strength or beyond your reach. It is not in heaven, so that you need to wonder, "Who will go up to heaven for us and bring it down to us, so that we may hear it and keep it?" Nor is it beyond the seas, so that you need to wonder, "Who will cross the seas for us and bring it back to us, so that we may hear it and keep it?" No, the Word is very near to you, it is in your mouth and in your heart for your observance.'

■ The word of the Lord

RESPONSORIAL PSALM – Ps 68: 14, 17, 30-31, 33-34, 36-37

R Turn to the Lord in your need, and you will live.
This is my prayer to you,
my prayer for your favour.
In your great love, answer me, O God,
with your help that never fails:
Lord, answer, for your love is kind;
in your compassion, turn towards me. R.

As for me in my poverty and pain
let your help, O God, lift me up.
I will praise God's name with a song;
I will glorify him with thanksgiving. R.

The poor when they see it will be glad and God-seeking hearts will revive;
for the Lord listens to the needy and does not spurn his servants in their chains. R

For God will bring help to Zion and rebuild the cities of Judah.
The sons of his servants shall inherit it;
those who love his name shall dwell there. R.

SECOND READING – Colossians 1: 15-20 A reading from the letter of St. Paul to the Colossians

Christ Jesus is the image of the unseen God
and the first-born of all creation,
for in him were created
all things in heaven and on earth:
everything visible and everything invisible,

Thrones, Dominations, Sovereignties, Powers –
all things were created through him and for him.
Before anything was created, he existed,
and he holds all things in unity.

Now the Church is his body,
he is its head.

As he is the Beginning,
he was first to be born from the dead,
so that he should be first in every way;
because God wanted all perfection
to be found in him

and all things to be reconciled through him and for him,
everything in heaven and everything on earth,
when he made peace
by his death on the cross.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Alleluia, alleluia!
Your words, Lord, are spirit and life;
you have the words of everlasting life.
Alleluia!

GOSPEL – Luke 10: 25-37

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Luke.

There was a lawyer who, to disconcert Jesus, stood up and said to him, 'Master, what must I do to inherit eternal life?' He said to him, 'What is written in the Law? What do you read there?' He replied, 'You must love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your strength, and with all your mind, and your neighbour as yourself.' 'You have answered right,' said Jesus. 'Do this and life is yours.' But the man was anxious to justify himself and said to Jesus, 'And who is my neighbour?' Jesus replied, 'A man was once on his way down from Jerusalem to Jericho and fell into the hands of brigands; they took all he had, beat him and then made off, leaving him half dead. Now a priest happened to be travelling down the same road, but when he saw the man, he passed by on the other side. In the same way a Levite who came to the place saw him, and passed by on the other side. But a Samaritan traveller who came upon him was moved with compassion when he saw him. He went up and bandaged his wounds, pouring oil and wine on them. He then lifted him on to his own mount, carried him to the inn and looked after him. Next day, he took out two denarii and handed them to the innkeeper. "Look after him," he said "and on my way back I will make good any extra expense you have." Which of these three, do you think, proved himself a neighbour to the man who fell into the brigands' hands?' 'The one who took pity on him' he replied. Jesus said to him, 'Go, and do the same yourself.'
