

FIFTH SUNDAY OF EASTER - YEAR B

FIRST READING – Acts 9: 26-31

A reading from the Acts of the Apostles.

When Saul got to Jerusalem he tried to join the disciples, but they were all afraid of him: they could not believe he was really a disciple. Barnabas, however, took charge of him, introduced him to the apostles, and explained how the Lord had appeared to Saul and spoken to him on his journey, and how he had preached boldly at Damascus in the name of Jesus. Saul now started to go round with them in Jerusalem, preaching fearlessly in the name of the Lord. But after he had spoken to the Hellenists, and argued with them, they became determined to kill him. When the brothers knew, they took him to Caesarea, and sent him off from there to Tarsus.

The churches throughout Judaea, Galilee and Samaria were now left in peace, building themselves up, living in the fear of the Lord, and filled with the consolation of the Holy Spirit.

■ The word of the Lord.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM – Ps 21: 26-28, 30-32.

R. I will praise you, Lord, in the assembly of your people.

My vows I will pay before those who fear him.
The poor shall eat and shall have their fill.
They shall praise the Lord, those who seek him.
May their hearts live for ever and ever! R.

All the earth shall remember and return to the Lord,
all families of the nations worship before him.
They shall worship him, all the mighty of the earth;
before him shall bow all who go down to the dust. R.

And my soul shall live for him, my children serve him.
They shall tell of the Lord to generations yet to come,
declare his faithfulness to peoples yet unborn:
'These things the Lord has done.' R.

SECOND READING – John 3: 18-24

A reading from the first letter of St. John.

My children,
our love is not to be just words or mere talk,
but something real and active;
only by this can we be certain
that we are the children of the truth
and be able to quieten our conscience in his presence,
whatever accusations it may raise against us,
because God is greater than our conscience
and he knows everything.
My dear people,
if we cannot be condemned by our conscience,

we need not be afraid in God's presence,
and whatever we ask him,
we shall receive,
because we keep his commandments
and live the kind of life that he wants.
His commandments are these: that we believe in the name
of his Son Jesus Christ
and that we love one another as he told us to.

Whoever keeps his commandments
lives in God and God lives in him.

We know that he lives in us
by the Spirit that he has given us

■ The word of the Lord.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Alleluia, alleluia!

Live in me and let me live in you, says the Lord;
my branches bear much fruit.

Alleluia!

GOSPEL – John 15: 1-8

A reading from the holy Gospel according to John.

Jesus said to his disciples:

'I am the true vine,
and my Father is the vinedresser.
Every branch in me that bears no fruit
he cuts away,
and every branch that does bear fruit he prunes
to make it bear even more.
You are pruned already,
by means of the word that I have spoken to you.
Make your home in me, as I make mine in you.
As a branch cannot bear fruit all by itself,
but must remain part of the vine,
neither can you unless you remain in me.

I am the vine,
you are the branches.
Whoever remains in me,
with me in him,
bears fruit in plenty;
for cut off from me you can do nothing.
Anyone who does not remain in me
is like a branch that has been thrown away
- he withers;
these branches are collected and thrown on the fire,
and they are burnt.

If you remain in me and my words remain in you,
you may ask what you will and you shall get it.

It is to the glory of my Father
that you should bear much fruit,
and then you will be my disciples.'

■ The Gospel of the Lord.

Australia sends support to India as country struggles to contain massive second outbreak of COVID-19

India is struggling to control a massive surge in COVID-19 cases, with a death toll nearing 200,000, after another 2771 deaths were reported on Tuesday.

However, fewer than a quarter of all deaths in India are registered, which means that current estimates of the COVID-19 fatality rate fall far short of the true picture.

Many Indian cities are struggling to manage a chronic shortage of hospital beds, with several cities reporting that they are nearly run out of hospital beds altogether, especially in ICU departments. Places of worship, sports complexes and even railway coaches have been converted into makeshift hospitals in order to keep up with the demand. There are also serious shortages of medical equipment, including oxygen and the anti-viral drug, remdesivir, across the country, putting further pressure on the already stretched healthcare system.

To address this, the PPC is organising a letter drop to all households in the Hampton Park/Lynbrook area and we need volunteers to assist. The 'postcard' will note the COVID precautions we are taking and invite residents to Sunday Mass. If you are able to help with distributing the card into mailboxes, please add your name to the form in the church foyer and attend an information session on Tuesday 11th May at 7.30pm.

Year of St. Joseph

TO THE FATHER

Heavenly Father,

St Joseph set aside his own plans to embrace your dream for us.

You invited his help in caring for Jesus your Son, our Saviour, and the Revealer of your wonderful love.

Enable us to live by your loving plan

and to reflect to the world the light of Christ.

St Joseph, man of dreams and trusting steward, pray for us.

TO THE SON

Lord Jesus,

You grew in wisdom and maturity

as you lived in the family of Nazareth

in daily communion with St Joseph and Mary your mother.

From St Joseph you learned the dignity of human work.

Give parents the wisdom to support their children and to guide them in the way and work of your Kingdom.

St Joseph, faithful parent and diligent worker, pray for us.

TO THE HOLY SPIRIT

Creator Spirit,

We see in St Joseph a tenderness and reverence for all your creation.

We learn from him to approach others justly and tenderly,

and to see our world as endowed with the glory of God.

Teach us to love one another

and to be of humble service to all of creation,

empowered by your life within us.

St Joseph, wise protector and humble servant, pray for us.
