

THE MOST HOLY TRINITY - YEAR B

FIRST READING – Deuteronomy 4: 32-34, 39-40 A reading from the book of Deuteronomy.

Moses said to the people: 'Put this question to the ages that are past, that went before you, from the time God created man on earth. Was there ever a word so majestic, from one end of heaven to the other? Was anything ever heard? Did ever a people hear the voice of the living God speaking from the heart of the fire, as you heard it, and remain alive? Has any God ventured to take to himself one nation from the midst of another by ordeals, signs, wonders, war with mighty hand and outstretched arm, by fearsome terrors - all this that the Lord your God did for you before your eyes in Egypt? 'Understand this today, therefore, and take it to heart: The Lord is God indeed, in heaven above as on earth beneath, he and no other. Keep his laws and commandments as I give them to you today so that you and your children may prosper and live long in the land that the Lord your God gives you for ever.'

■ The word of the Lord.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM – Ps 32: 4-6, 9, 18-20, 22.

R. Happy the people the Lord has chosen to be his own.

The word of the Lord is faithful and all his works to be trusted.
The Lord loves justice and right and fills the earth with his love. R.

By his word the heavens were made,
by the breath of his mouth all the stars.
He spoke; and they came to be.
He commanded; they sprang into being. R.

The Lord looks on those who revere him,
on those who hope in his love,
to rescue their souls from death,
to keep them alive in famine. R.

Our soul is waiting for the Lord.
The Lord is our help and our shield.
May your love be upon us, O Lord,
as we place all our hope in you. R.

SECOND READING – Romans 8: 14-17. A reading from the letter of St. Paul to the Romans.

Every one moved by the Spirit is a son of God. The spirit you received is not the spirit of slaves bringing fear into your lives again; it is the spirit of sons, and it makes us cry out, 'Abba, Father!' The Spirit himself and our spirit bear united witness that we are children of God. And if we are children we are heirs as well: heirs of God and coheirs with Christ, sharing his sufferings so as to share his glory.

■ The word of the Lord.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Alleluia, alleluia!

Glory to the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit:
to God who is, who was, and who is to come.

Alleluia!

GOSPEL – Matthew 28: 16-20

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew.

The eleven disciples set out for Galilee, to the mountain where Jesus had arranged to meet them. When they saw him they fell down before him, though some hesitated. Jesus came up and spoke to them. He said, "All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me. Go therefore, make disciples of all the nations; baptize them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and teach them to observe all the commands I gave you. And know that I am with you always; yes, to the end of time."

■ The Gospel of the Lord.

Let's Reflect.....

"The Spirit itself bears witness with our spirit that we are children of God, and if children then heirs, heirs of God and joint heirs with Christ..." - ROMANS 8:16-17

If we are heirs to the kingdom of God, shouldn't we work to build up His kingdom? Shouldn't we be good stewards of our inheritance, using our time in prayer, our talent in charitable works and our treasure to care for the Church that God has left to us? Our Church is a treasured heirloom from God. Do we treat it that way?

A Message
for when the 1 person per 2sq. meter rule applies

Seating in the church –
Provision for individuals with special needs and/or particular disabilities, and carers

A meeting during the week of Sacristans and three other parishioners discussed the question of the accommodation in the church of persons with special needs. The intent prompting the discussion of such a question was to try and ensure that persons with special needs are included in the maximum number permitted within the church in light of the current restrictions.

Outcomes:

- up to 6 seats are to be available at each Sunday Mass (inc. the Vigil Masses). It was noted that, for those with special needs, it can be a struggle just to come to Mass and be on time. Therefore, these seats are to be kept open and available. The maximum number now allowed within the main area of the church is 248, and not 254 (the availability of 30 seats in the foyer continues).
- these 6 seats also allow for any carers, and provide the option to be seated at the front (near to the Sanctuary) as well as at the back (in the tiled area near the font). These seats may be regularised as 2 seats at the front, whether for 2 wheelchairs or 2 other seats, and 4 at the back. There may be, however, some flexibility with regard to the numbers at the front and the back. It was noted that some parishioners who use a walking frame opt to sit elsewhere in the church. In these instances, the Sacristans are aware and alert the priest celebrant and/or an Extraordinary Minister of the Eucharist for the purpose of bringing Communion to the person(s).
- those who are uppermost in mind, though not exclusively, are persons in wheelchairs or with walking aids, the frail aged, and pregnant women.
- the Sacristans endeavour to be alert to persons with special needs to offer assistance, and are also receptive to requests to give assistance to them.

I am grateful to all those who have been part of this important process for our parish community.

Month of May: Pray the Daily Rosary on Zoom at 6pm

The month of May is dedicated to Mother Mary. One of the best ways to honour and commemorate Our Lady is to recite the Rosary daily to implore her blessings upon us and to pray for an end to this pandemic. So, as a parish community, you and each member of your family is invited to join in praying the Rosary daily at 6pm.

*'The Barefoot Mystic - Reflection event via Zoom', Saturday 5 June 2021, 10am-3pm. A person places themselves in the presence of God. This is not a goal to be achieved; rather, it is a natural state where we find and embrace our true selves. The first thing one must understand is that 'God's first language is silence' (St John of the Cross). This reflection event is an invitation to be silent and to rest in God. Facilitated by Paul Beirne of Heart of Life Centre for Spiritual & Pastoral Formation, via Zoom. Cost $50.
