SFS STUDENT RACING TO THE NATIONALS!

Grade four student at St Francis de Sales primary school in Lynbrook, Andi Mole, has qualified for the Australian Cross Country Championships in August.

Andi overcame nerves to finish fifth in the state championships at Yarra Glen Racecourse on Thursday 14 July, qualifying her for the national finals in Adelaide, and received a hero's welcome when she arrived back at school.

"I'd been thinking about that (race) for the whole last week and the holidays," Andi said.

"I was starting, and I was in front, but then some girls had some more energy to catch up."

A basketballer and footballer in her spare time, the nine-year-old took up distance running as a student at the school.

Her training has included running around Banjo Paterson Lake, across the road from the school, on Tuesday and Thursday mornings before class, with music teacher Kristy Galea following her on a bike, providing encouragement on the way.

Solemnity of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary

The Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary provides a balancing point between the Annunciation on March 25 and the birth of Jesus on December 25. Here Mary is honoured both as Theotokos (God-bearer) and first and best example of the glory of resurrection for human beings. Mary dies, but she is taken into heaven that we might all know what awaits us after this life.

Andi said she's excited for the national championships next month, and keeps her motivations simple.

"Just do your best. Think about, how far you've gotten and it really doesn't matter."

School Principal Christine White said the entire school was behind Andi in her quest for the national crown.

"We're all ecstatic," Ms. White said.

"We're so proud of her and what she's achieved.

"There was an overwhelming feeling of joy from everyone at what she's accomplished.

"She's a very determined girl; she set herself big personal goals and it's her own determination and perseverance that's got her where she is."

The Australian Cross Country Championships will be held at Oakland Racecourse in Adelaide on August 27.

THE TWENTIETH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME - YEAR C

FIRST READING – Jeremiah 38: 4-6, 8-10

A reading from the prophet Jeremiah

The king's leading men spoke to the king, 'Let Jeremiah be put to death: he is unquestionably disheartening the remaining soldiers in the city, and all the people too, by talking like this. The fellow does not have the welfare of this people at heart so much as its ruin.' 'He is in your hands as you know,' King Zedekiah answered 'for the king is powerless against you.' So they took Jeremiah and threw him into the well of Prince Malchiah in the Court of the Guard, letting him down with ropes. There was no water in the well, only mud, and into the mud Jeremiah sank.

Ebed-melech came out from the palace and spoke to the king, 'My lord king,' he said 'these men have done a wicked thing by treating the prophet Jeremiah like this: they have thrown him into the well where he will die.' At this the king gave Ebed-melech the Cushite the following order: 'Take three men with you from here and pull Jeremiah out of the well before he dies.'

■ The word of the Lord

RESPONSORIAL PSALM Ps 39: 2-4, 18. R.v.14

R. Lord, come to my aid!

I waited, I waited for the Lord
and he stooped down to me;
he heard my cry. R.

He drew me from the deadly pit,
from the miry clay.
He set my feet upon a rock and made my footsteps firm. R

He put a new song into my mouth,
praise of our God.
Many shall see and fear
And shall trust in the Lord. R

As for me, wretched and poor,
the Lord thinks of me.
You are my rescuer, my help,
O God, do not delay. R

SECOND READING – Hebrews 12: 1-4

A reading from the letter to the Hebrews

With so many witnesses in a great cloud on every side of us, we too, then, should throw off everything that hinders us, especially the sin that clings so easily, and keep running steadily in the race we have started. Let us not lose sight of Jesus, who leads us in our faith and brings it to perfection: for the sake of the joy which was still in the future, he endured the cross, disregarding the shameful of it, and from now on has taken his place at the right of God's throne. Think of the way he stood up for such opposition from sinners and then you will not give up for want of courage. In the fight against sin, you have not yet had to keep fighting to the point of death.

■ The word of the Lord

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Alleluia, alleluia!

My sheep listen to my voice, says the Lord;
I know them, and they follow me.

Alleluia!

GOSPEL – Luke 12: 49-53

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Luke.

Jesus said to his disciples: 'I have come to bring fire to the earth, and how I wish it were blazing already! There is a baptism I must still receive, and how great is my distress till it is over!

'Do you suppose that I am here to bring peace on earth? No, I tell you, but rather division. For from now on a household of five will be divided: three against two and two against three; the father divided against the son, son against father, mother against daughter, daughter against mother, mother-in-law against daughter-in-law, daughter-in-law against mother-in-law.'

■ The Gospel of the Lord

Let's Reflect.....

"Do you think I have come to give you peace on Earth? No, I tell you, but rather division."
Luke 12:51

Many of us like to play it safe, not cause waves with our family and friends, especially when it comes to politics and religion. We don't want to cause any turmoil. However, many times this is at the expense of the truth. The truth being Jesus Christ. Too many people are misguided because they rely on their own limited human ability to reason and are not allowing faith in God to guide them. Form your conscience; take a stance for life, marriage and religious liberty.
