Advent

Marantha – Come, O Lord!

This season is meant to be distinguished by moderation. The moderation we practise in Advent serves as a model for our spiritual lives year-round.

Advent is a season that calls us to be awake, ready to serve the needs of our world.

The message of the Promised One is a message of peace, mercy, and justice for all.

Any list of the sick in the parish bulletin will undergo renewal according to a four-week cycle. After four weeks a person's name on the sick list will be removed. However, once again on the basis of written permission of an authorized person the name can be re-added to the list.

REMINDER:

Please note the cut-off day and time for handing in names for Mass Intentions is Thursday 4 pm. Please call or email the Parish Office.

Let's Reflect.....

"Therefore, every tree that does not bear good fruit will be cut down and thrown into the fire."

Matthew 3:10

Do you bear good fruit for Jesus? Do you spend time in prayer or do you waste it with mindless activity? Do you use your talent to help others or are you too busy? Do you use your treasure to support the Church or do you buy more things that go unused. Our time, talent and treasure are gifts from God. What we do with these gifts is our gift back to Him. What gifts are you planning to give to the Lord during this upcoming Christmas season?

ST VINCENT DE PAUL SOCIETY

CHRISTMAS APPEAL

The members of the St Vincent De Paul Society have been remarkably busy during the current year. Since the lockdown was released there has been a significant increase in the help requested. The help provided is close to $60,000 this year up to end of October. This includes food vouchers, rent assistance, and help with Utility bills and other help.

In the 2021 Christmas assistance we helped approx. 160 families with toys and food hampers. We were able to carry this out with the generous help of the St Kevin's Parish community and the two primary schools, St Kevin's and St Francis De Sales.

This year we have a considerable number of families that require help during Christmas. Therefore, once again we request your generous support by taking a tag from the Christmas tree in the foyer of the church and donating a toy for a needy child.

We plan to make deliveries on the 21 December 2022. Therefore, we would appreciate it if the toys can be received by Sunday 12 December 2022.

Thank You,

Sumith Otagama, President

Christmas Party for kids

The Social Group invites you to St Kevin's Christmas Party, which, this year, includes high school children too. To get an estimate of numbers on the day please fill in the following form which can be accessed via this link below or the QR code.

Where: St Kevin's Hall

Time: 3.00pm to 5.30pm

2nd SUNDAY OF ADVENT - YEAR A

FIRST READING – Isaiah 11: 1-10

A reading from the prophet Isaiah.

A shoot springs from the stock of Jesse,
a scion thrusts from his roots;
on him the spirit of the Lord rests,
a spirit of wisdom and insight,
a spirit of counsel and power,
a spirit of knowledge and of the fear of the Lord.
(The fear of the Lord is his breath).
He does not judge by appearances,
he gives no verdict on hearsay,
but judges the wretched with integrity,
and with equity gives a verdict for the poor of the land.
His word is a rod that strikes the ruthless;
his sentences bring death to the wicked.
Integrity is the loincloth round his waist,
faithfulness the belt about his hips.
The wolf lives with the lamb,
the panther lies down with the kid,
calf and lion cub feed together
with a little boy to lead them.
The cow and the bear make friends,
their young lie down together.
The lion eats straw like the ox.
The infant plays over the cobra's hole;
into the viper's lair the young child puts his hand.
They do no hurt, no harm, on all my holy mountain,
for the country is filled with the knowledge of the Lord
as the waters swell the sea.
That day, the root of Jesse shall stand as a signal to the peoples.
It will be sought out by the nations
and its home will be glorious.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM Ps. 71: 1-2, 7-8,12-13,17

R. Justice shall flourish in his time, and fullness of peace for ever.

O God, give your judgement to the king,
to a king's son your justice,
that he may judge your people in justice
and your poor in right judgement. R.

In his days justice shall flourish
and peace till the moon fails.
He shall rule from sea to sea
From the Great River to earth's bounds. R.
For he shall save the poor when they cry
and the needy who are helpless.
He will have pity on the weak
And save the lives of the poor. R.
May his name be blessed for ever
and endure like the sun.
Every tribe shall be blessed in him,
all nations bless his name. R.

SECOND READING – Romans 15: 4-9

A reading from the letter of St. Paul to the Romans

Everything that was written long ago in the scriptures was meant to teach us something about hope from the examples scripture gives of how people who did not give up were helped by God. And may he who helps us when we refuse to give up, help you all to be tolerant with each other, following the example of Christ Jesus, so that united in mind and voice you may give glory to the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ.

It can only be to God's glory, then, for you to treat each other in the same friendly way as Christ treated you. The reason Christ became the servant of circumcised Jews was not only so that God could faithfully carry out the promises made to the patriarchs, it was also to get the pagans to give glory to God for his mercy , as scripture says in one place: For this I shall praise you among the pagans and sing your name.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Alleluia, alleluia!

Prepare the way of the Lord, make straight his paths:
all people shall see the salvation of God. Alleluia!

GOSPEL – Matthew 3: 1-12

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew.

In due course John the Baptist appeared; he preached in the wilderness of Judaea and this was his message, "Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is close at hand." This was the man the prophet Isaiah spoke of when he said,
"A voice cries in the wilderness ; Prepare a way for the Lord, make his paths straight."

This man John wore a garment made of camel-hair with a leather belt around his waist, and his food was locusts and wild honey. Then Jerusalem and all Judaea and the whole Jordan district made their way to him, and as they were baptised by him in the river Jordan they confessed their sins. But when he saw a number of Pharisees and Sadducees coming for baptism he said to them, "Brood of vipers, who warned you to fly from the retribution that is coming? But if you are repentant, produce the appropriate fruit, and do not presume to tell yourselves, "We have Abraham for our Father," because, I tell you, God can raise children for Abraham from these stones. Even now the axe is laid to the roots of the trees, so that any tree which fails to produce good fruit will be cut down and thrown on the fire. I baptise you in water for repentance, but the one who follows me is more powerful than I am, and I am not fit to carry his sandals; he will baptise you with the Holy Spirit and fire. His winnowing-fan is in his hand; he will clear his threshing-floor and gather his wheat into the barn; but the chaff he will burn in a fire that will never go out.
