Safeguarding Core Group Report

Two weeks ago, the Core Group members of the Safeguarding Committee met for the first time and have begun to work on risk assessments for the ministries in which our children and young people are involved. The Safeguarding Core Group members are Danielle D'Souza, Howard Fernandez, Sunita D'Mello and Macrina Martin. The Safeguarding Core Group will work with the Safeguarding Committee to ensure the safety of all children and vulnerable people in the parish.

The existing Safeguarding Committee members are Courtney Thursfield, Jackie Blanche, and Eric Moore. The Parish wishes to expand the existing Safeguarding Committee to include representatives from each ministry. To express your interest in being part of the Safeguarding Committee, please send an email to safeguarding.hamptonpark@cam.org.au

Stay tuned for more updates on what we're doing to strengthen our efforts as a Parish in relation to child safety.

Have you ever considered becoming Catholic?

Are you searching for a Church to call your own? Do you struggle with questions about life, death, suffering, hope, forgiveness, love, God? Sessions exploring these and other issues in relation to our Catholic faith are being held from the month of October. Statistics show that most people respond to a personal invitation. So please accept this as a personal invitation.

No one is born Catholic. An unbaptized person or a person baptized in a Christian church, may wish to explore becoming a Catholic. This year, beginning in October, a group of adults gather to begin that process. They meet regularly with a team made up of Priests and Parishioners. The group (known as the Catechumenate) moves in stages or steps toward Lent and the Easter Vigil when Baptism is celebrated for the unbaptized and the person baptized in a Christian church, is welcomed into full communion with the Catholic Church.

The RCIA, which stands for Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults, is a process through which non-baptized men and women enter the Catholic Church. It includes several stages marked by study, prayer and rites at Mass. Participants in the RCIA are known as catechumens. They undergo a process of conversion as they study the Gospel, profess faith in Jesus and the Catholic Church, and receive the sacraments of baptism, confirmation and Holy Eucharist. The RCIA process follows the ancient practice of the church and was restored by the Second Vatican Council as the normal way adults prepare for baptism.

CatholicCare Victoria Sunday Appeal

Thank you from CatholicCare Victoria

CatholicCare Victoria is deeply grateful for the support of our parish during last week's CatholicCare Victoria Sunday Appeal. We have received $676.00 from last Sunday's collection.

Because of the generosity of our parish community, CatholicCare Victoria can continue to ensure that vulnerable individuals and families in our community have the opportunity to live life to the full. Thank you for helping those in need!

For more information about CatholicCare Victoria, please visit: www.catholiccarevic.org.au.

You can continue to donate online at www.catholiccarevic.org.au or call (03) 9287 5513. All gifts of $2 and above are tax deductible.

St Vincent De Paul Society Winter Appeal

The members of the St Vincent De Paul society would like to thank the St Kevin's Hampton Park church community for their support in providing generous contributions for the above appeal.

We received a total contribution of $3,400.00. These funds will be used to buy food vouchers to be distributed to the needy families. We would also like to thank the Students and Teachers of St Kevin's Hampton Park and St Francis De Sales Lynbrook for providing food for the above appeal.

These food items will be donated to the needy families during our visits to them.

Thank You,

Members of St Vincent De Paul Society Hampton Park

Ongoing Printing Costs

The Parish Office is reviewing the ongoing printing cost that is incurred every Quarter. At present the cost of printing four pages of the Bulletin (23,000 pages averaged for the quarter) in colour costs $1,570.00. The cost of printing the same number of papers in Black and White would cost $156.00.

This is a significant saving of funds. This would mean that the weekly Bulletin would be in Black and White from September. As and when needed, we will print in colour. I am eager to get your feedback on this matter. Please use the suggestion box in the foyer.

Twentieth Sunday in Ordinary Time – Year A

Prayer before reading the Word of God

Father, anoint me with your Holy Spirit, so that as I read your eternal word, your word may penetrate my whole being and transform me. Grant me the blessing to be a faithful disciple in believing the Word of God and that I may be a light shining upon all who are in darkness. Amen

1st Reading – Isaiah 56:1,6-7

Thus says the Lord: Have a care for justice, act with integrity, for soon my salvation will come and my integrity be manifest. Foreigners who have attached themselves to the Lord to serve him and to love his name and be his servants – all who observe the sabbath, not profaning it, and cling to my covenant – these I will bring to my holy mountain. I will make them joyful in my house of prayer. Their holocausts and their sacrifices will be accepted on my altar, for my house will be called a house of prayer for all the peoples.

The word of the Lord.

Responsorial Psalm - Psalm 66(67):2-3,5-6,8

Res: O God, let all the nations praise you!

O God, be gracious and bless us
and let your face shed its light upon us.

So will your ways be known upon earth
and all nations learn your saving help.

R: O God, let all the nations praise you!

Let the nations be glad and exult
for you rule the world with justice.

With fairness you rule the peoples,
you guide the nations on earth.

R: O God, let all the nations praise you!

Let the peoples praise you, O God;
let all the peoples praise you.

May God still give us his blessing
till the ends of the earth revere him.

R: O God, let all the nations praise you!

2nd Reading – Romans 11:13-15,29-32

Let me tell you pagans this: I have been sent to the pagans as their apostle, and I am proud of being sent, but the purpose of it is to make my own people envious of you, and in this way save some of them. Since their rejection meant the reconciliation of the world, do you know what their admission will mean? Nothing less than a resurrection from the dead! God never takes back his gifts or revokes his choice.

Just as you changed from being disobedient to God, and now enjoy mercy because of their disobedience, so those who are disobedient now – and only because of the mercy shown to you – will also enjoy mercy eventually. God has imprisoned all men in their own disobedience only to show mercy to all mankind.

The word of the Lord.

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, alleluia.

Jesus preached the Good News of the kingdom and healed all who were sick.

Alleluia!

Gospel – Matthew 15:21-28

Jesus left Gennesaret and withdrew to the region of Tyre and Sidon. Then out came a Canaanite woman from that district and started shouting, 'Sir, Son of David, take pity on me. My daughter is tormented by a devil.' But he answered her not a word. And his disciples went and pleaded with him. 'Give her what she wants,' they said 'because she is shouting after us.' He said in reply, 'I was sent only to the lost sheep of the House of Israel.' But the woman had come up and was kneeling at his feet. 'Lord,' she said 'help me.' He replied, 'It is not fair to take the children's food and throw it to the house-dogs.' She retorted, 'Ah yes, sir; but even house-dogs can eat the scraps that fall from their master's table.' Then Jesus answered her, 'Woman, you have great faith. Let your wish be granted.' And from that moment her daughter was well again.

The Gospel of the Lord.
