Parents will need to fill in enrolment forms for their children to take part in these sessions.

Safeguarding Update:

The Archdiocese advocates "Safeguarding is everyone's responsibility!" and as a parish we are presented with a challenge that we need to address collectively to come up with ideas on how we ensure the safety and dignity of our young ones as they participate in activities within the parish space.

None of the existing spaces in our church premises at this moment are fit-for-purpose from a safeguarding perspective to function as change-rooms for children, especially when this involves large groups of children. This has also been confirmed by Safeguarding staff from the Archdiocese who have inspected our church facilities. Given that we are also mandated to segregate boys and girls, and younger children from young adults, this then brings in complexities like the timed sharing of these facilities and need for supervisory arrangements to ensure everyone's safety. While we can rely on the assistance of many parent volunteers, at the more well-attended events like weekend masses and parish celebrations, we are required to ensure the integrity of this system all the time.

The immediate need is to work something out for our Altar Servers but we are approaching this from a longer-term perspective, so that whatever we decide on as a parish will not only suit the needs of the Altar Server ministry but also be suitable for any other group or ministry which involves children going forward, for example, for children that need to get dressed for the nativity play on Christmas eve at the Family Mass or for our Carols by Candlelight event.

So, we are appealing to you to come out and give us your ideas. Even if you don't have a child currently in any of our ministries, child safety is our collective responsibility. You use this church space, you attend confessions in the Room of Mercy, give us your suggestions. Please put your suggestion in the suggestion box in the foyer for the next 2 weeks and every suggestion dropped in there will be considered. Please make sure to leave your contact information with your suggestion just in case we need to explore your idea further with you.

Keep in mind that we have a finite built-up space and repurposing any of our existing rooms is not only going to involve costs that come out of the parish budget but also means a disruption to the activity that the room was previously used for...and we want to ensure that you, our parish community have had a chance to have your voice heard.

All suggestions presented will be reviewed and evaluated by me along with the Safeguarding Committee to assess the risk, practicality and costs involved for every idea that is proposed.

Brown Scapular – Part 2

The Thirteenth Century was a turbulent time, and the Church was threatened by enemies on all sides. It was then that the Blessed Virgin Mary appeared to St. Simon Stock, Superior General of the Carmelite Order, on July 16, 1251, and in her hand, she held the "Garment of Grace", which we know as the Brown Scapular.

The Brown Scapular is a Roman Catholic devotion to Mary under her title of Our Lady of Mount Carmel. It is worn as a sign of love and devotion for the Mother of God. The idea of the scapular and the giving of oneself to another for protection were not something new to medieval Europe. It had been around since 550, when the monastic orders came about. The two pieces of cloth joined at the shoulders and hanging down the back and breast had deep spiritual meaning. Our Lord said in the gospels, 'My yoke is sweet, and my burden is light.' The monks by putting on this garment realized that the sweet burden of Divine service was upon him and the whole day was dedicated to God. Our Lady chose that which was traditional and widely practiced to be a Sign of Salvation, a Protection in Danger and a Pledge of Peace for all who would cloth themselves with the 'Garment of Grace.'

An important aspect of wearing the Scapular is the Sabbatine Privilege. This concerns a promise made by Our Lady to Pope John XXII. In a papal letter he issued, he recounted a vision that he had had. He stated that the Blessed Virgin had said to him in this vision, concerning those who wear the Brown Scapular: "I, the Mother of Grace, shall descend on the Saturday after their death and whomsoever I shall find in Purgatory, I shall free, so that I may lead them to the holy mountain of life everlasting."

According to Church tradition, there are three conditions necessary to participate in this Privilege and share in the other spiritual benefits of the Scapular: wear the Brown Scapular, observe chastity according to your state in life, and pray the Rosary.

In addition to the Sabbatine Privilege, enrolment in the Brown Scapular also makes a person part of the Carmelite family throughout the world. They therefore share in all of the prayers and good works of the Carmelite Orders. Participation in the Carmelite family also, of course, places you in a special relationship with the Carmelite saints, especially St. Elijah, St. Teresa of Avila, St. John of the Cross, St. Therese of Lisieux, and, most importantly, Our Lady of Mount Carmel.

St. Alphonsus Liguori had a very special devotion to Our Lady of Mount Carmel and while alive wore his brown scapular faithfully. He said: "Just as men take pride in having others wear their livery, so the Most Holy Mother is pleased when Her children wear the Scapular as a mark that they have dedicated themselves to Her service and are members of the Family of the Mother of God." Many years after his death his grave was opened; the body and priestly vestments in which he was buried had turned to dust! But his scapular was found PERFECTLY INTACT! St. Alphonsus Liguori's Brown Scapular is still miraculously intact and on exhibit in his Monastery in Rome.

Many popes and saints have strongly recommended wearing, the 'Garment of Grace' to the Catholic Faithful, including, Pope John XXII, Pope Pius XI, and Pope Benedict XV. Pope Benedict XV, addressing seminarians in Rome: "Let all of you have a common language and a common armour: The language, the sentences of the Gospel - the common armour, the Brown Scapular of the Virgin of Carmel which you ought to wear and which enjoys the singular privilege and protection after death."

I personally have worn the scapular since the day I made my first Holy Communion. Every time I touch the scapular I am reminded of the gentle protection of our Lady. When I experience some turbulent times knowing that I am clothed with her Garment of Grace gives me comfort that Our Lady is always protecting me from all harm. In this day and age we need every spiritual help to persevere in our faith and to live our life to the full. To receive the spiritual blessings associated with the Scapular, it is necessary to be formally enrolled in the Brown Scapular by a priest. Once enrolled, the enrolment is for life and need not be repeated. Our Lady loves Jesus so much, I pray that She will enable us to love Him more and more each day.

24th Sunday in Ordinary Time – Year A

1st Reading – Ecclesiasticus 27:33-28:9

Resentment and anger, these are foul things, and both are found with the sinner. He who exacts vengeance will experience the vengeance of the Lord, who keeps strict account of sin.

Forgive your neighbour the hurt he does you, and when you pray, your sins will be forgiven. If a man nurses anger against another, can he then demand compassion from the Lord?

Showing no pity for a man like himself, can he then plead for his own sins? Mere creature of flesh, he cherishes resentment; who will forgive him his sins? Remember the last things, and stop hating, remember dissolution and death, and live by the commandments.

Remember the commandments, and do not bear your neighbour ill-will; remember the covenant of the Most High and overlook the offence.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm - Psalm 102: 1-4, 9-12

Res: The Lord is kind and merciful: slow to anger, and rich in compassion.

My soul, give thanks to the Lord,
all my being, bless his holy name.

My soul, give thanks to the Lord,
and never forget all his blessings.

The Lord is kind and merciful: slow to anger, and rich in compassion.

It is he who forgives all your guilt,
who heals every one of your ills,
who redeems your life from the grave,
who crowns you with love and compassion.

The Lord is kind and merciful: slow to anger, and rich in compassion.

His wrath will come to an end;
he will not be angry for ever.
He does not treat us according to our sins
nor repay us according to our faults.

The Lord is kind and merciful: slow to anger, and rich in compassion.

For as the heavens are high above the earth
so strong is his love for those who fear him.
As far as the east is from the west
so far does he remove our sins.

The Lord is kind and merciful: slow to anger, and rich in compassion.

2nd Reading – Romans 14:7-9

The life and death of each of us has its influence on others; if we live, we live for the Lord; and if we die, we die for the Lord, so that alive or dead we belong to the Lord. This explains why Christ both died and came to life: it was so that he might be Lord both of the dead and of the living. The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, alleluia!

I give you a new commandment: love one another as I have loved you.

Alleluia!

Gospel – Matthew 18:21-35

Peter went up to Jesus and said, 'Lord, how often must I forgive my brother if he wrongs me? As often as seven times?' Jesus answered, 'Not seven, I tell you, but seventy-seven times.'

'And so the kingdom of heaven may be compared to a king who decided to settle his accounts with his servants. When the reckoning began, they brought him a man who owed ten thousand talents; but he had no means of paying, so his master gave orders that he should be sold, together with his wife and children and all his possessions, to meet the debt. At this, the servant threw himself down at his master's feet. "Give me time" he said, "and I will pay the whole sum." And the servant's master felt so sorry for him that he let him go and cancelled the debt. Now as this servant went out, he happened to meet a fellow servant who owed him one hundred denarii; and he seized him by the throat and began to throttle him. "Pay what you owe me" he said. His fellow servant fell at his feet and implored him, saying, "Give me time and I will pay you." But the other would not agree; on the contrary, he had him thrown into prison till he should pay the debt. His fellow servants were deeply distressed when they saw what had happened, and they went to their master and reported the whole affair to him. Then the master sent for him. "You wicked servant," he said "I cancelled all that debt of yours when you appealed to me. Were you not bound, then, to have pity on your fellow servant just as I had pity on you?" And in his anger the master handed him over to the torturers till he should pay all his debt. And that is how my heavenly Father will deal with you unless you each forgive your brother from your heart.' The Gospel of the Lord. Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.
