News From Fr. Fabian

- The month of November is fast approaching. The church calls us to remember and pray for all deceased relatives, friends, and souls in purgatory. All masses offered for remembrance/death anniversaries in November will be recorded in the new Book of Remembrance. The Book will be processed during the offertory and placed at the altar, for all weekend masses in November.
- The work to create three separate vesting areas for the altar servers has commenced and the storeroom now serves as the vesting area for girls who are under 18. The space accessible from the entrance of the foyer is for servers over 18 and the newly sub-divided Room of Mercy is in progress, when completed will be the vesting area for boys under 18.
- On behalf of the parish, I wish to thank the JCILM ministry for conducting the evening of prayer led by Br. Johnson Sequeira. We thank them for their contribution of $545 through a collection for the parish. This money will go towards the renovation of the adoration chapel.
- The Parish Calendar is being organised for next year, anyone who wishes to bring to attention events that need to be in the calendar for 2024, kindly bring it to my attention via email HamptonPark@cam.org.au
- We are in the process of creating an online calendar for 2024 to book the following spaces for Parish use only, as required: Church, Foyer, Parish boardroom, Parish meeting room and Hall. All leaders from various groups will have viewing access to this calendar. An email must be sent to the Parish Office to book any of these spaces.

We at St. Kevin's Parish, Hampton Park would like to gather feedback from our parishioners regarding the timings of our Christmas masses this year. If you (or a family member) plan on attending a Christmas-eve or Christmas-day mass, then please fill out this survey and let us know which of the options being proposed below are preferable. Please scan the QR code to complete the survey.

Please note: Paper copies of this survey will be available in the church foyer too.

Catholic Mission Sunday 22nd October 2023

This week Catholic Mission will offer the opportunity to be part of a life-changing program – The Maria Auxiliadora Clinic. The Maria Auxiliadora Clinic is a vital project for the Salesian Sisters and the Church in Venilale. Since its establishment, the clinic has provided life-saving treatment for many in need, like Jose*, who became severely malnourished at 8 months old. But, with an increase in the demand for treatment, the Sisters resources can only carry them so far. Freecall: 1800 257 296 catholicmission.org.au/timor

Please give generously today to help continue this life-giving program by using the appeal envelope, going online at catholicmission.org.au/timor, or scanning the QR code. Your gift will also help many other similar Church-run mission programs around the world.

Laudate Deum

The Vatican released the new Apostolic Exhortation by Pope Francis, Laudate Deum, to all people of good will on the climate crisis, on 4 October 2023. It is a document intended to follow up on his 2015 encyclical, Laudato Si', On Care for Our Common Home.

It is worth remembering that an apostolic exhortation is a teaching document from the pope, which aims to exhort (encourage) a particular virtue or address social challenges. The title "Laudate Deum" translates to "Praise God," a powerful reminder of the importance of stewardship and the responsible use of power. We invite you to read Laudato Deum, and reflect on the Pope's teachings.

The Precepts of the Church — Part V

This week, we shall take a detailed look at the sixth precept of the Church.

6. The faithful also have the duty of providing for the material needs of the Church, each according to his abilities.

We are obliged to contribute to the support of our pastors, and to bear our share in the expenses of the Church and school and any charitable institution connected with the Church.

The Holy Land was divided among the tribes of Israel, who were the descendants of the 12 sons of Jacob. Now, one of these 12 tribes was made up entirely of priests and persons who served in the temple of God, called Levites. They received none of the land but were to be supported by the other 11 tribes. All the people were obliged by the law to give what they called first fruits and tithes — that is, a 10th of their income in goods or money — each year to the temple for its support and the support of those who served it.

In the New Law no definite amount is assigned, but each Christian is left free to give what he can to God's Church according to his generosity.

But if God left you free, should you therefore be stingy with him? Remember, all that we have comes from God. For every alms you give for God's sake he can send you a hundred blessings; and what you refuse to give to his Church or poor he can take from you in a thousand ways, by sending misfortunes.

We read in the Bible (Genesis 4) that Adam's sons, Cain and Abel, both offered sacrifice to God. Abel's sacrifice was pleasing, but Cain's was not. Why? Because, as we are told, Cain did not offer to God the best he had, but likely the worst; or at least, he offered his sacrifice with a bad disposition. Then, when he saw that his brother's sacrifice was pleasing to God, being filled with jealousy, he killed him; and in punishment God marked him and condemned him to be a wanderer on the face of the earth. We are told he was always afraid of being killed by everyone he saw. See, then, what comes of being unwilling to be generous with God.

What we give him he does not need, but by giving, we worship and thank him. Do not people in the world often give presents to those who have done them a favour, that they may thus show their gratitude? Now, God is always doing us favours, and why should we not show our gratitude to him by giving generously in his honour?

When we give to the orphans, the poor and so on, we give to him; for he says: "Whatsoever you give to these little ones you give to me." Again, when Our Lord tells what will happen on the Day of Judgement (Matthew 25:31ff), he says, the Judge will divide all the people of the world into two bodies; the good he will place on his right hand and the wicked on his left. Then he will praise the good for what they did and welcome them to Heaven; but to the wicked he will say, "Depart from me, because when I was hungry you gave me not to eat; when I was thirsty you gave me not to drink; you clothed me not" etc. And then the wicked shall ask, "When did we see you in want and not relieve you? He will tell them that he considered the poor just the same as himself; and as they did nothing for his poor, they did nothing for him. Perhaps a family has trouble making ends meet. What does the Church teach regarding using a portion of our tithe for the Catholic education of our children?

Section 222 of the Code of Canon Law describes our obligation to support the Church as follows:

"The Christian faithful are obliged to assist with the needs of the Church so that the Church has what is necessary for divine worship, for apostolic works and works of charity and for the decent sustenance of ministers. They are also obliged to promote social justice and, mindful of the precept of the Lord, to assist the poor from their own resources." The Church also teaches that parents are the primary educators of their children and providing them with a proper formation certainly falls within the activities described in section 222.

Remembering that the primary reason we tithe is to increase our love for God and neighbour, we should strive to have our sacrifices be used for the good of others. When, due to a lack of resources, a family is faced with not being able to provide an authentic Catholic formation for their children, certainly it would be permissible to use a portion of the tithe for that purpose.

29th Sunday in Ordinary Time – Year A

1st Reading – Isaiah 45:1, 4-6

Thus says the Lord to his anointed, to Cyrus, whom he has taken by his right hand
to subdue nations before him
and strip the loins of kings,
to force gateways before him
that their gates be closed no more:
'It is for the sake of my servant Jacob,
of Israel my chosen one,
that I have called you by your name,
conferring a title though you do not know me.
I am the Lord, unrivalled;
there is no other God besides me.
Though you do not know me, I arm you that men may know from the rising to the setting of the that, apart from me, all is nothing.'
The word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm - Psalm 95(96):1,3-5,7-10

Res: Give the Lord glory and honour.

O sing a new song to the Lord,
sing to the Lord all the earth.
Tell among the nations his glory
and his wonders among all the peoples.
Res: Give the Lord glory and honour.

The Lord is great and worthy of praise,
to be feared above all gods;
the gods of the heathens are naught.
It was the Lord who made the heavens,
Res: Give the Lord glory and honour.

Give the Lord, you families of peoples,
give the Lord glory and power;
give the Lord the glory of his name.
Bring an offering and enter his courts.
Res: Give the Lord glory and honour.

Worship the Lord in his temple.
O earth, tremble before him.
Proclaim to the nations: 'God is king.'
He will judge the peoples in fairness.
Res: Give the Lord glory and honour.

2nd Reading – 1 Thessalonians 1:1-5

From Paul, Silvanus and Timothy to the Church in Thessalonika which is in God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ; wishing you grace and peace from God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

We always mention you in our prayers and thank God for you all, and constantly remember before God our Father how you have shown your faith in action, worked for love and persevered through hope, in our Lord Jesus Christ. We know, brothers, that God loves you and that you have been chosen, because when we brought the Good News to you, it came to you not only as words, but as power and as the Holy Spirit and as utter conviction
The word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, alleluia!

Shine on the world like bright stars;
you are offering it the word of life.
Alleluia!

Gospel – Matthew 22:15-21

The Pharisees went away to work out between them how to trap Jesus in what he said. And they sent their disciples to him, together with the Herodians, to say, 'Master, we know that you are an honest man and teach the way of God in an honest way, and that you are not afraid of anyone, because a man's rank means nothing to you. Tell us your opinion, then. Is it permissible to pay taxes to Caesar or not?' But Jesus was aware of their malice and replied, 'You hypocrites! Why do you set this trap for me? Let me see the money you pay the tax with.' They handed him a denarius, and he said, 'Whose head is this? Whose name?' 'Caesar's' they replied. He then said to them, 'Very well, give back to Caesar what belongs to Caesar – and to God what belongs to God.'

The Gospel of the Lord.
Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.
